

AFMO Refund Policy

Reason for the policy

It is important that there is a mutual understanding between parents and the Outaouais Minor Football Association regarding our refund policy.

In order to run this not-for-profit youth sports organization, OMFA/AFMO has to prepay for insurance, the purchase and refurbishment of the football gear, and other substantial costs prior to the start of each season. In the event your child decides he/she doesn't want to play after the season has started, we are unable to recoup these costs. Also, we often turn kids away because the league is full, or due roster restrictions - your child will have taken a spot that could have gone to another player.

It is for these reasons OMFA/AFMO has developed the following refund policy, and refunds will only be provided under the conditions outlined below.

Effective date

January 1, 2013

Non-refundable fee

All registrations are subject to a non-refundable $50 fee. This fee covers administration costs and insurance for the player. The insurance is paid to Football Quebec and is mandatory before a player can participate in any AFMO activities, both on and off the field.
